Managing health – Personalized care alerts

Unique clinical outreach helps keep members safe by providing personalized, actionable alerts when possible omissions, adherence gaps and “on-track” behavior are detected.

- Members receive an email that a new pharmacy care alert is available. Upon log in, their personalized red, orange or green alert is prominently located for their attention.
- With one click, members can access alert details, learn more about any risks from resources and video links, and take action using the options provided.

The screenshot displays the Express Scripts member portal interface. At the top, the Express Scripts logo and navigation links (Terms of use, Privacy, View text only, Español, Logout) are visible. The main navigation bar includes HOME, PRESCRIPTIONS & BENEFITS, and RESOURCE CENTER. On the left, a sidebar menu lists various services like 'Prescriptions & benefits', 'Planning & reference', and 'Resource center'. The central content area features a 'Welcome' message and a prominent red alert box titled 'Action required: Chris, our pharmacists have identified alerts in your care that need to be reviewed.' Below this, there is a section for 'Mail order prescriptions you can order today' with instructions and links. On the right, a shopping cart shows one item (Zocor 40 mg tablet) and a 'check out' button. A yellow sticky note prompts the user to 'View your list of things to do today.' A 'Messages' section at the bottom right indicates that the user's account balance exceeds the limit for their prescription plan.
