

March 27, 2023, HBR Alert

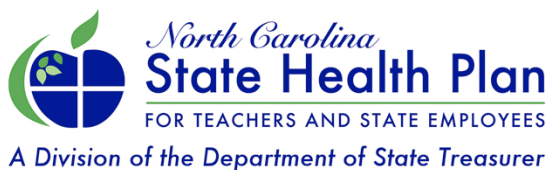

eBenefits is Down

Please be aware that the eBenefits platform is currently down and can not be accessed. Benefitfocus has alerted the State Health Plan that it is likely not going to be up and running today, March 27.

The Eligibility and Enrollment Support Center is open, but representatives are limited in the assistance they can provide.

The Plan will send another alert out when we have additional updates.

Thank you for your patience.
